A few reminders about the hearing aid program:

- You will be contact via mail or email two-three weeks after we have received your application. This letter will inform you of your application status.
- There is a co-payment associated with your hearing aids. It is based on the style of aid your provider recommends, as well as on your monthly income. There are no payment plans.
- You may submit a hearing test from a non-Lighthouse approved provider with your application; however you will need to choose a Lighthouse-approved provider to move forward in the program. He or she will have to accept the hearing test you already have, or they will require you to get a new one with them. To be safe, try to get your hearing test done with a Lighthouse-approved provider. Please read our New Patient Letter & FAQs for more information.

- The cost of the hearing aid package is based on a sliding scale
- The client's household size, income, and type of hearing aid needed will determine the cost of the package (ranges from $95-$260 per aid)
 - Georgia residency for at least one year
 - Income within 200% of Federal Poverty guidelines
 - Current hearing test (less than 6 months old)
 - Georgia ID
- Hearing tests are not covered
- Hearing aid package includes:
